Dear Sir:

We are being deluged with requests about old coins, by people who write that they have seen an advertisement in your newspaper. We ask you to kindly remove any such statement. We neither buy nor sell old coins, nor do we issue any catalogue stating premiums. For your convenience I am enclosing a list of dealers throughout the country. Many of them also issue premium lists, ~~and~~ ^{we} We should appreciate your courtesy in acceding to our request.

Very truly yours,

Assistant to the Curator.
